STATESBORO, Ga. – Seven members of the Georgia Southern baseball team will spend their summer competing in collegiate baseball leagues across the country.

These Eagles will continue to work on their game by facing collegiate competition during the summer before returning to campus for the start of fall practice.

Georgia Southern will be represented in seven different leagues including the prestigious New England Collegiate Baseball League, Northwoods League and Coastal Plains League.

The trio of leagues has produced notable MLB alumni such as Washington Nationals pitchers Stephen Strasburg, Max Scherzer and Jordan Zimmermann along with the Chicago White Sox ace Chris Sale and New York Mets first baseman Lucas Duda.
